

Stardust

Mitchell Parish

Hoagy Carmichael

The musical score for "Stardust" consists of ten staves of music in common time (indicated by a '4'). The key signature is A major (no sharps or flats). The vocal line starts with a melodic line and includes lyrics with corresponding chords above the staff. The lyrics describe a lonely night spent dreaming of a song, a melody haunting reverie, love being new, and each kiss inspiring. It contrasts past and present, mentioning a long ago consolation in the stardust of a song, and a garden wall where stars are bright. The score also includes a section about a knight telling his fairytale, roses growing, and dreams in vain.
